Ramtha's teachings on owning Gold span decades

- "Monetarily speaking, your country is bankrupt. Your country does not have the gold reserves to back up their monies by fiat. At present, your economy is bankrupt and there will be a fall of the stock market to where your dollar goes to seven cents."

*- "In the days to come, your in-God-we-trust dollars should be invested in gold, for gold has sustained a three-thousand-year barter system. In the final analysis it will be the only thing that will have the value to buy your sovereignty completely when the transfiguration from economic monies to one card occurs."
"The gold is to pay off your indebtedness so that no one owns you, and your foodstuffs are for your survival."*

“I asked you to buy gold when it was cheap and put it up and not spend it. Just put it up. Its value will replace a destroyed currency. Are you not on that now? What is the value of gold? Everyone is going to it because the currency has no value. Do I think you should buy it now? You should have bought it a long time ago. That is what prophets do.”

Jimmy Carter Issues 'Call To Action' Against Subjugation Of Women

In his new book, A Call To Action, Carter tackles a fundamental question of equality head-on: the subjugation of women in cultures around the world. Carter joins NPR's Rachel Martin to talk about the state of human trafficking and whether religion can be a conduit for lasting change around gender,

Ramtha: "The Tragedy of Women's Enslavement"

"The downfall of the divinity of man occurred when man proclaimed a woman soulless – soulless. You know, in the name of God this was done. Contemplate it. God has always been called man.

Did you ever know of any woman that ever became a Christ?"

- Ramtha

January 2003

"I am in the body of a woman because women are the most prejudiced species there is. Forget the Equal Rights movement. Let's talk about women of all virtues and all ethnic groups around the world that to this day some are burned to death by their husbandmen because their dowry has run out."

Ancient Aliens Season 4 Episode 10

"Angkor Wat, Cambodia, is the world's largest ancient religious temple. Within its megalithic ruins, researchers have discovered a depiction of a species of dinosaur—a stegosaurus. But how could the ancients have had knowledge of animals that mainstream science says died out millions of years ago? Why are dinosaurs extinct? Did an alien race of beings kill off the dinosaurs to make room for humankind?"

Ramtha spoke in 1998 of alien intervention in dinosaurs' elimination

The colony in Atlatia was in dispute with the colony on the moon. The colony of Atlatia fired a laser at the encampment on the moon and struck down its most powerful center. At that time there were still giants on the land – dinosaurs – and the laser was used to abolish them off of the continent of Atlatia.

Oldest artifacts found, 40,000+ years old

A STUNNING archaeological discovery at Brighton could change scientific understanding of human occupation. In a new development set to rock the scientific world, the artefacts found in the path of the proposed bypass could be twice as old as previously thought. The discovery of the remains, that preliminary estimates show could be at least 40,000 years old, would give the scientific world a unique glimpse of a previously unknown period of human occupation this far south on the planet.

Ramtha: Earth inhabited 35,000+ years ago

Lemuria was not a great continent. Its shores were today's Pacific Northwest. Beyond its beach line there were lakes and swamps. My great elders – the great elders – knew a war was coming and they warned everyone. There was a safe passage made for us to Baja California and Mexico, which were all swamplands.

Our pilgrimage to Onai was through Baja California and Mexico. At the time of our pilgrimage, Mexico was not a stable landmass; it was a swampland. That was 35,000 years ago."
