

CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION – summary

When you arrive at your first event, you will be asked to sign a Conditions of Participation form. The full legal version may be downloaded below. Please bring a signed copy with you to the event.

The teachings and materials are subject to copyright and trademark laws and, just like when you purchase a music CD or a piece of computer software, when you attend an RSE event, you are paying only for the personal use of the information and techniques you receive. While you may share your event experiences with your family and informally with your friends, sharing or teaching the information and techniques in a public manner may not be done without the prior written consent of the school.

Events are recorded on audio tape. By signing the form, you agree not to claim that Ramtha said anything to you that is not part of that record, for example something you believe you were told by Ramtha telepathically or in a dream or vision.

The school strives to provide a safe environment but some activities carry a risk of injury because they are done blindfolded or require physical agility, stamina, and coordination. You will be required to waive any claims for personal injuries that occur during the events. Participation is encouraged but not required.

Participants at the School are regularly photographed. These may be used by the School for promotion and other purposes without prior consent of the participants.

We have developed Rules that all participants are expected to follow. You can find these at www.ramtha.com/conditions. Failure to follow them can result in expulsion from the School.

If you are unwilling to sign the form and you have already paid your admission fee, JZK, Inc. will refund your payment.
