1. Alicia Benavides

1. Alicia Benavides, Cancun, Mexico. Today I did my disciplines. I apply my learning. I went to the casino, choose a machine with a symbol that I see in the candle and with a light heart I won 200 dollars, double from yesterday.

2. Hollie Giaccone, Kerman, Calif. I saw some numbers in C&E then the orbs gave me the number 15 through the iOvilus app. I went to the a little convenience store in the small farming community where I live. The store was very chaotic and busy. There were a lot of different forms. I have never liked gambling so I was not familiar with the different games. I looked at them all and decided I may as well go for it. Let's do the Super Lotto 30 million & the Mega Millions 19 million. The store was very busy so I stand in line to pay for my tickets. When I hand them to the clerk the line of people is growing behind me and he can't get the mega millions ticket to go through the scanner. He hands me back the form & says I have to redo the form. Feeling anxious I tell him no, I'll just take the Super Lotto ticket. I purchased it and quickly ran back home to make it in time for the stream. After class, I checked my Super Lotto ticket. I hit 3 out of 4 numbers and won $8. I thought just for fun let's check the Mega millions numbers. (I used the same numbers for that ticket but that is the ticket that wouldn't scan). My numbers hit 4 out of 6 numbers. I would have made $93 if I had taken the time to self correct and redo the form. Now I realize this is like the tank. You have to stay focused even in line to pay for a ticket. I learned that you must follow through all the way. 15 -- the number the orbs told me -- HIT IN BOTH. I went to bed and I asked my God to wake me at 3:00 am. The orbs on the iOvilus app said PORCH. That is were I usually do my grid work. I did the grid, created my day, did a walk "I have always been a winner" then candle focus. I got into a very deep focus. I saw the words "Take the Journey" and I was also given some numbers. I wrote them down then went back to bed. When I awoke to do the morning walk I just knew that I had to FIND a casino. It was an hour drive from where I live. For me to do C&E, then get to the Casino and back for class at 7 pm, I will only have an hour to stay at the Casino. I decide this is going to be very clean. Go in, Bet, Win, Go to class. Then I said, "OK God, it's you & me. Whatever it takes. Let's Do it. I want to experience you." I took the journey to the Casino. I have never been there before. I get inside & it's full of machines and tables and people and I am looking for the power ball table (they don't have roulette) so this is the closest thing.. I'm ready I have my numbers & the power ball table is CLOSED. Panic starts to creep in. I start walking around like JZ said. I say to my God, "Okay, I'm here. I took the journey? What do you want me to do?" I get the impression I'm supposed to just walk around, allow the info to come, & then check the power ball station. I find a machine. I have absolutely no idea what to push or bet or what any of these symbols mean. I came here to focus on numbers. I don't know what it looks like to win on any of these machines because I have never played them. I think about JZ and Big Ben & my journey, so I put in $20 and play there for a few minutes. Still not understanding what I'm supposed to focus on, I lost $7. I cashed out and walked through the machines and said my list, then I ran into the Big Spin Machine. I thought "I can do this one." It was a little simpler looking and had a lever to Pull. It had some bars and sevens and cherries. But I still didn't know what a win was supposed to look like. I decided I would just put the blue web on it we have been working on and focus on the word WIN. I pulled the lever, that thing started singing and flashing & I won $213. I was ready to cash out and get the heck out if there! Then I have this thought "You promised God you'd stay for an hour and play the numbers you were given." So I quickly head over to the power ball table & it's OPEN. I ask them what I have to do. They tell me. I get my chips start playing. I won again. I quickly cashed out, Jumped in My car, and made it home by 7 pm. I won $287 in less than 1 hour. But most of all, I took the journey my God asked me to take, and because I did, it manifested itself for me in entirely new way. Thank you Ram, JZ, and my friends the orbs who have helped me break through. I'm so in Awe & Excited about our New Magical Adventure!

3. Iliana Valdes. Coordinator for Cali, Colombia. Wednesday in the afternoon C&E, for the first time I clearly saw an 8. It was awesome. Then in the candle focus 18 came up. I woke up with a 26 Thursday. So I decided to go to the casino after work. When I got in, all the Roulette tables were full. I walked around the machines, sat down, and played 5 dollars. The machine had an eagle, which is the symbol I've been working since I created my year. I focused on the eagle and I doubled my money. I was so excited, that I let my emotion get in the way, and lost. I stood up, and saw a friend in the Roulette table. I asked if I could join her. I put 10 dollars in, and started to focus in my #8. The first roll, landed in 12. Then 8 hit. I played the 18, it hit too. I played a couple of different numbers, didn't get anything, I refocused and played the 26, and it hit. I cashed in 20 dollars. This is my first time for the Roulette. I was so excited! The important thing I learned, is that I can do anything! The issue I contemplated later, was that I admit fear to put a high bet on the number, even though I knew the number was going to hit. I didn't get to listen to JZ's talk today, but as I shared my experience with a fellow student, she said that JZ had touched that topic. Congratulations to all that with their minds have created winning!

4. Grant Rickert. Toowoomba, Australia. My remote view at the Realization Shop was a #7 and 7 days. My symbol in C&E was to do with gold. After doing the disciplines, it was time to go and do our thing to be a winner. I got a Scratchy ticket called Set For Life, potential of $250,000 per year for 4 years. It also has 5 games on it with smaller amounts to win, ticket price $5. I scratched three gold bars which won me $7 My first thought was, that was not much for 3 gold bars. BUT I then realized, I got my 7 that was in my RV. That to me was more meaningful than winning any other amount. Today in C&E I saw SET FOR LIFE scratchy appear, so after that, off to the scratchy shop I go. After the great talk from JZ, I got 4 tickets not just one. That cost $20. 777 came up in a small game for $10 plus with the other small games. I won total of $22. Got another 4 tickets for $20. Won $17. My Grand total $46 - $45 investment = Profit of $1. A win is a win, but of course I learnt heaps about myself in this journey and let go of heaps of stuff. The most important lesson was that I got my remote view from my God with the #7 and the gold, this was a great win for me far more important than the money as so many other beautiful masters have said.

5.Maria Hopkins. Dorrigo, Australia. Yesterday in my C&E, I saw a red ticket (I thought this was a scratch card) and the number 7, 6. I had seen numbers other days but never thought about going out to play. I decided to go yesterday. We went to the dingy little room with 6 machines. It was my first time to play and it felt weird being there with a few old men. I realized I had judged the place as a dive and for losers. I played $5 and got up to $8 and lost that. I drove home and realized I forgot the scratch card. Today I created my day and still saw the red ticket and some numbers clearly however our little town only has slot machines, no roulette. I drove into town, bought 3 of the $1 red scratch cards and put them away and went to the club. There was an old man there and he was on a dragon slot machine. I was drawn to another machine that had dragon figures on it, put in $20 and then I stood and looked at it in all its grandeur as JZ talked about with her Big boy machine. And it was red. I realized this was the red card I'd seen and knew this was my winner. I did my walk "I am a winner" and played. In total, I won $120. Most of all I conquered a huge chunk of doubt and loved the life experience. Thank you so much JZ for your inspirational talk yesterday on there are no losers. Each moment is a new one. Thank you Ram for never giving up on us.

6. Ineke Buskens, Grabouw, S. Africa. I won R17 in yesterday's national Powerball lottery. I had 3 numbers of the 6 correct. Thank you to all of you, Ramtha, JZ and all you beautiful masters who were sharing: you had me laughing and humming and crying, I recognized myself in all of you. I learnt so much, not only about my programs but about numbers. I know the casino will be up for me next. Lots of love and see you soon.

7. Annie Rae, Tauranga, New Zealand. Until this week I was a stranger to slot machines and how they worked. Yesterday, I chose to fall victim to my past, became despondent, and I lost my investments. Last night and this morning I became fired up by listening to my fellow students, describing their battles with their cover-ups and JZ's splendid talks. Thank you all for your wonderful stories they were so inspiring! Today I took $30 and I was ready for the onslaught of my cover-ups (fear of losing, fear of not be able to perform, fear of not being good enough, fear of failure, self doubt, anxiety, and others). I was aware of the cover-up pushing for a front seat in my frontal lobe and I self corrected. I was losing and down to my last $2. I was beginning to feel flat and decided to change this by changing my mind set. I got up to feel the zest, zeal and enthusiasm that I had arrived with. I closed my eyes, and settled myself by taking slow deep breaths. I spoke to my God and commanded it to help me. I sat in front of the machine and got friendly. I smiled and greeted it just like JZ did with her handsome Big Ben. I felt the machine warm up to me. I pushed the play button, slowly and deliberately, focusing on "I have always been a winner" and then ping, ping, ping, ping -- my machine began talking and lighting up! I had won 90 credits. I decided to push the "gamble button" and up came the back of a card with a red bar on the left side and a black bar on the right. I closed my eyes, focused on the card and saw a heart. I pressed the red button and got it correct. I took my time focusing on the back of the next card and saw a diamond. I pressed the red bar and I was correct again. I had three more turns to choose the color and I won those three as well. It was time to go home for the Streaming. I pushed the "cash out" button, and a shower of coins fell out into the bin by my knees! I had the grand sum of $110. And I absolutely know that I created that reality. Thank you JZ and Ramtha, I am so very grateful to you both!

8. Gail Marie

8. Gail Marie, Anacortes, WA. After Rams talk I realized how small the blocks were in my life, and being in the casino today helped me to realize it fully. I have not seen any new numbers, so I bought 2 more of the scratch tickets with the 8's all over it. I won $100 on one card and $50 on the other. I drove to the casino with a new attitude, very calm, focused, that was new. At the casino I won $340, $430, and $176 off machines and walked out with over $500. My old M.O. would be to play and play on one machine until I got that jack pot, and swing and swing, but i was focused on seeing and listening to my God, and my knowing said go home now and i did. What is so jazzy and cool is that it is a discipline that I have gotten so focused in, aware and self correcting because I don't want to miss anything my God wants me to see or hear. Thank you Jazzy JZ, Ram and all the Masters. Hearing all your stories is so awesome, I feel so close to you. Love and love

9. Viktoria Sears

9. Viktoria Sears, Minneapolis, MN. I decided to take a different action this morning and get some scratch cards early after my walk. I had won $1 two days ago with the Lotto. After contemplating JZ's talk and Giorda's sharing I walked for more acceptance and greater winnings. I saw a 6 and a 2. In the case at the convenience store, the Electric 8 scratch cards stood out. I purchased 6 Electric 8's cards. Each card was $2 so that took care of those numbers. I also promised myself during the walk that I would take action on the Lucky 13 that I saw and worked with yesterday. The closest card to Lucky 13 was Lucky Loot so I got one of those. I played each card as if it was its own field self correcting as I scratched each number. I went through the Electric 8's with no win. Then I played the Lucky Loot card. I was almost done with scratching the numbers and still no win. Then an attitude that was in my way revealed itself very clearly so I self corrected with "I have never been disappointed, I have always been a winner". I have 3 numbers left to scratch. I matched the 28's and won $20! This was 20 times the previous winnings of $1! My love and thanks to JZ, Ramtha, RSE staff and all of you for making this possible! P.S. An update on my healing. I went through about 1/2 of yesterday with strength and very little pain in my left knee and no pain in my back. After 3 years of pain and immobility, this was a miracle. Then an attitude of doubt crept in as "when will this end, this can't last". I am now walking "I have always accepted my total and complete healing". Today I am moving much more gracefully and am much more confident in my ability to change this forever.

10. Jurgen Bossert, Weil im Schönbuch, Germany. I have further developed my walk as Lawgiver and have scored today sensational winning results. For me absolutely phenomenal. I've won today €63, $82. Thank you very much JZ for your lecture, which has set much in motion for me to achieve overall results.

11. Anne Chessex, Rainier, WA. I went to the Casino for the first time during this event. Last night, I woke up at 4 am, very inspired. I had a wonderful feeling as if an entity was talking to me: "it's time now that you have a certitude that you are a God". It was so beautiful, colorful around me. I did C&E and saw 4 numbers with one that was more precise. I focused from my house to the Casino. I repeated all the way: I have always been a winner. I entered the Casino and I saw a table with students. I sat down and stayed one hour and won $70 on my most important number, and $70 on an other number that I saw also in my C&E. Total $140. I am so happy. I have a certitude and a calm within me and I look forward to go tomorrow and win the double! Thank you Ram for your teaching, and thank you JZ for everything you told us this morning.

12. Maxine Martin

12. Maxine Martin, Yelm. During my candle focus on Friday I saw the number 4. I went to the casino Friday afternoon. Once there we went straight to the Roulette table. I had never played before. I played the number 4 every time, and it finally hit and I won $35. I played some slot machines and won on some and lost on some. When we were ready to leave I had about 15 minutes to wait for my friends while they finished their games. I saw an empty space at a slot machine called Inca Gold, I sat down at it and put $5 in and just said to my Deeper Mind that I just wanted it to play the machine. I pressed the button and won 16 free spins, I just sat and watched as the money accumulated. I pressed the button again and won another 8 free spins. I placed a few more bets but saw that it was going down so cashed out at $95. This has been a breakthrough event for me and I have loved hearing everyone's stories, and of course thank you JZ for your inspiring stories, and thank you Ramtha for EVERYTHING!

13. Gay Prasad, Tauranga, NZ. The first day I got 37 very clearly and 5 other numbers not so clear. I used them all and bought a power ball lotto ticket. 37 hit but it didn't pay so I wasn't a winner. On the inside I felt fabulous that my God had given me one clear number and it hit. Then I noticed my impatience to do the discipline didn't wait for my God to show me clearly what to do next. The second day I'd seen the number 23 in C&E, I'd also seen a part of a roulette wheel so I thought I would play 23 at roulette. There was no roulette table at the gaming room, only a picture of one on the wall. There were about a dozen slot machines in a tiny corridor off the bar area. I looked around to see what I would do with my 23 and saw a picture of another roulette wheel, as part of a machines decoration, with 23 lit up in the centre of it. I knew it was my machine, I sat straight down and pushed the 25-maximum bet, $2.50 a push, on the fourth push I hit 20 free spins and the free spins kept getting hits when it had finished I had won $71. I was on just following my Gods instruction. Then I got the feeling my turn was over it had gone dull. I kept playing until I was down to $60. When I looked up, I saw the 23 in the centre had turned into 24. I cashed out. I'd also seen the number 12 in C&E so I went looking for a machine, I chose a machine with 12 free spins if you hit the right buttons, there was a calculating blue eyed pirate on the front and after listening to JZ's story about Big Ben I thought I'd see how we'd get along. I won for a bit and then the light went out of his eyes and he ate up my $'s, I cashed out before he took it all, I still felt like a the winner I'd been saying I was! But now I see my calculating attitude, a user, what can you do for me. No! I don't want to do that anymore. All the time I was on a high because it was like magic all the signs matching up. I was so happy with seeing the 23 and finding a 12 to play. I didn't report my win because I thought it wasn't enough, now i see that that is just an old worn out attitude. I have been uncovering attitudes every day and I know I will keep working this discipline as it is giving me the fastest insights into my personality cover ups. Thank you to everyone who shared and inspired us all.

Thank you so much JZ for your sharing that helped us all make changes and bless you for all those wonderful 36 years of your life that you have given us. To my beloved teacher Ramtha, thank you for everything.

14. Andrea Levanti, Yelm, WA. This morning I woke up remembering nothing whatsoever of my dreams except for something fleeting about the number 4. I hadn't seriously thought of going to go to the casino and just planned to continue playing lottery games during the event and figured I'd add the 4 to my other numbers. As it turned out, though, my friends suggested we go Friday afternoon so as not to miss out on the casino experience during the event. After some initial resistance based in fear of failure, I was in, really wanting to take this opportunity. Since I had dreamed the number 4, I committed to my god that I'd play that on roulette, which was not a comfortable thought for me. We got there before the RSE crowd rolled in, so I had a spot at the table right away and bought $20 in chips. I played the number 4 on each spin and also played my other numbers but didn't win at all for several spins. At the very last moment before I placed my last three chips, I was moved to put two chips on the 4 and one on 5 instead of the other way around as I initially intended. The 4 hit, so I won $72 on it. I realize that god gave me the information as I'd commanded, and to honor our partnership, I simply needed to have the patience to let the reality unfold one step at a time in the course of my day. I love you, JZ and Ram and our outrageous student body, and I'm constantly amazed that this school exists!

15. Gabriela Krimler, Hautwil, Switzerland. Yesterday before the C&E I was in a dilemma. Should I focus on the numbers I already had and have already filled out on a lottery ticket, or should I focus on those who have appeared during this event. Then came to my mind, today is the drawing for these figures. I then chose the numbers that I already had the lottery ticket for. I did the C&E and blew out these numbers. As the discipline ended, I noticed how my body was bigger and more permeable and it glittered around me, and I saw a wonderful blue. I thought wow how nice. The next morning it came to me I could check the lottery numbers via Internet query. I saw I had some numbers correct. I went to the store to check my ticket. So I had 5 numbers, matched 3 and won 103 CHF/$110USD. I felt really high and I ran around this shop like a chicken. I went home and I contemplated the whole story. I realized that I had reached this state of glitter in C&E that RAM always spoke about. What a wonderful event that brings us all so much. Thank you to everyone.

16. Shane Cotter, Rogers, MN. I used the lotto as a discipline in the past. I was able to get a few numbers correct in Mega-millions and Powerball. Unfortunately I created a negative neuronet with the experience. When Ramtha asked us to engage the discipline, I audibly groaned. I was a good candidate for an attitude adjustment. Immediately I was notified of a crisis on the farm that would compete with the Advanced Retreat for my attention. The stress from mastering the crisis felt like a necromancer. I overcame it and my focus and walk were literally dripping with glitter! The next day I received my numbers in C&E and played Minnesota's Daily3 game. I had not played this game before. I filled out the game form incorrectly and owed twice as much money as I had brought into the store with me. The clerk was impatient and I saw it as a test. I excused myself to get change out of my vehicle. I focused on my breath as I got the remainder of what I owed and composed myself to re-enter the store. Later that night I learned I had not won. I was ready to give in and focus on something other than what Ram asked us to do. I spent today going through the worms and mastered my compromised attitude. When RSE had an open gate to go to the casino and JZ Rose, static electricity shorted out my laptop. It would not turn back on! I called the farm and asked if I could borrow a laptop. As I drove, I wondered if there was another game I could play tonight. I found a Progressive Print and Play Bingo game and bought a $1 ticket. I drove home and kept repeating to myself "I have always conquered myself." If I thought "you won't win" I countered "I might win and I want to win." Then I played the game. It was fun, stress-free and I won my money back! I took a chance, I gently conquered my emotions and then I won. I want to thank the channel, our teacher, RSE and all of the students who shared their endeavors in this fun and challenging discipline.

18. Betsy Armando, Argentina. This was my second casino night, March 1st. In the C&E I had clearly seen the 46 but when I got to the roulette, numbers only go to 36! I can't imagine my face from embarrassment, with which my personality and plans were disappointed and so began the chatter and the work of conquest of the monkey mind. I left there and I walked through aisles "I always have been a winner, I always have won fabulous prizes," and I asked my God for new direction. I walked through the middle of the slot machines until suddenly, one "called me" as radiating light. I sat down, focused and pressed the button. It began to turn and I focus award! It gave me $60. Charged and happy and thankful I kept walking until another typewriter "called me." I sat down, focused and pressed the button. It turned and turned and started to make noise and displayed symbols of gold dollar signs. It gave $45. I cashed my $105. Between both nights, I cashed approximately $155 USD less "expenses" of $107 USD. I can choose to stand in the place of "being detach from results" and simply enjoy the beautiful experience that I had two wonderful future now nights. Contemplation and observation, as JZ said this morning in her serene wisdom, it was a great initiation. I bless the Ram and JZ for guiding me to "see" so much wonder. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

19. Jenny Bennett, Sardi, BC, Canada. I won in the Lotto Max in Canada. I got 4 out of 6 numbers and won $20. My wealth is increasing. God-speed. I love this school beyond measure. I am taking my power back.

20. Laurine Syverson, Tenino, WA. Greetings everyone, wow, what a grand progressive series of events so far this year! I'm seeing many layers that I've hidden from myself for who knows how long. Those layers that bring about desperation instead of calm, being filled with anger, blame, guilt, shame, etc., in order to keep it all hidden. That, of course, leads to victimization and tyranny and in not taking responsibility for creating these layers in the first place. And wow, what resistance to change! I got a very painful toothache in which the side of my face swelled up to the size of a baseball within a few hours. The first part of the event for me was about Blue Body healing. After a couple days the swelling and pain had gone down and now it is all gone. Thank you, my beloved greater self! The most wonderful thing to me was receiving the numbers from my greater mind during the C&E. I got the numbers 2 and 24 and thought the 24 was the dominant number. I hadn't been in a casino for 7 years and was anxious and struggled to focus. I first went to the machines and played a few penny machines going from the initial $10, going up and down to move on with $4 and change. Still struggling with focus, I went ahead and placed 1 and 2 dollar bets on my numbers. Didn't win. Repeated the process, didn't win. Decided to sit out a couple of spins. The number 2 came up twice in a row. After a few more spins, I placed bets and no wins. Down to my last $3, I won on the number two and made $36 (plus had my $4). Subtracting the initial buy-in, I ended up with a $10 profit! The next night 5 of us went to the casino together. Again, I had gotten my number from C&E. I decided to go to the roulette straight away since I knew we had more of a time constraint to get back. I knew my focus was not totally there but I thought, "my god gave me the number, it's already happened, so just do it." I doubled the amount I put on the bets but did not win. I played the machines a little after that but knew I was gambling and didn't win any money. However, my greatest winning is I am aware now how important it is to take the beautiful gift of knowing the numbers into a state of calm, centered trust and not get hung up in the chaos which totally takes me back to the personality. Thanks so much to Ram, JZ and all the on-stage testimonials

21. Mary Elizabeth Meyers

21. Mary Elizabeth Meyers, Rainier, WA. As I was cleaning, I just happened to see the time of day displayed on my stove. I wasn't looking consciously to see what time it was, I just happened to notice. The time displayed was 5:10. I stopped and just looked. The thought came quickly that these are the numbers I should play at the roulette that night. As it turned out, I didn't have the "pull" to go to the casino that night and knew the numbers were already created and were just waiting in the void. The next day during candle focus the numbers 5, 15 (and I thought I had seen the number 10), appeared in my candle focus and C&E. So, I went to the casino Friday and had planned to play these numbers at Roulette. After having played the slots for awhile I walked around the casino focusing on the numbers I had created. I placed 10 chips each on of the numbers 5,15 and 25. Number 15 hit! Looking away from the table and recalling my candle focus, I then decided to play 5, 10, 1, 0. Ten chips on each. I do remember hearing my God say "number 2" just before the dealer said, "no more bets". As I looked away from the table directly at the blank wall at the end of the casino I hear the dealer say, "number 2." I am thinking to myself, I should have played number 2. So, I continue looking at the wall and as I turn toward the table to begin placing my next bet I see a very large pile of chips being pushed toward me. I am thinking, who put those chips on number 2? I only remembered placing chips on the numbers 1, 0, 5. This same experience has happened several times before at roulette and slots. My total winnings last night at roulette was $494 and $318 at slots. I've been participating in the Casino discipline for over a year. At this point, my biggest single win at roulette has been $1328. My best estimate of Casino winnings to date is approximately $15,000. The jazz, zeal and acceptance grows continually and I know that my future reality of being a Master of the Casino will be realized. Thank you, I love you JZ and Ramtha!

22. Anne Willingham, Yelm, WA. Friday morning I was much more nervous than excited about going to the casino and as I walked my usual words changed. I just wanted to be humble enough let my god come through me and I wanted to be clear, clean, and open. During the disciplines I focused on seeing myself going to the casino calmly, with a light heart, and a sense of adventure. I entered the casino and instead of seeing it as chaotic and desperate I found it energetic. It was sweet as I recognized many students also navigating their way in unfamiliar territory. My plan was to ease into it by walking all around the slot machines until a lightning bolt pointed out "The ONE" but most machines were taken. I noticed an empty seat right away and started to walk away because I thought I needed to scout the whole place out before making such a momentous decision. I decided that was a silly regulation so I sat down and was befuddled by what to do next. A kind student next to me explained where to put my card and $20 ticket. She showed me the various buttons and told me what patterns to focus on. I pushed my first button and chaos ensued on the screen and I didn't know what I was looking at. I punched a few more times and couldn't make sense of what won and what didn't. I got some credits and lost some. I decided that was too complex so I looked away from the screen and focused on winning while I pushed the button again and I won more credits. I began to notice the fluidity of the situation and the machine itself. When I looked at what the machine was doing it was in control and I usually lost. When I looked away and focused on winning, I won. I experienced this happening several times so I got bolder and upped my bid. I also noticed that all the movement and noise around me became a white noise hum that was actually comforting. My god, I was actually enjoying myself and didn't really care what happened. I was down to $8 when I focused and pushed the button. I heard more bells and whistles on the machine and looked down to see the credits racking up to a total of $33.35. Wow! It had quadrupled. I was happy and knew that I had accomplished what I wanted and that was to forget myself, keep it simple, and allow my god to do something. I still had some time so I thought I should find another machine. I wandered around, sat down, and played a couple of rounds that did not win. I stopped when I realized that I did not want to pollute the pure experience I had just had. My mind was still basking in realization and I decided to let it be. My winning was $12.65 but the experience was priceless and has set me on a new path. I also want to note that I observed at the roulette table for a while. Most of the people there were RSE students and I sensed no competition. People were focused in a light hearted way and very respectful of each other and waiting their turn. I am in love all over again with every single student in this school. My deep gratitude to Ramtha and JZ.

23. Chris Muller, Yelm, WA. I won again today at the roulette. I went to the casino today and when I entered through the door of the casino the number "8" came up very clearly in my mind so I played the roulette and put the number 8 as well as the numbers I saw in my C&E yesterday, including the number "6". The number "8" hit four times and the number "6" hit one time for a total of $209.
