

2nd Lt. Anthony Segura scouts a valley, ready to call back the engine to hold fire and observe and to recover the heavy machinery is part of their job. At Yakima, soldiers are going without the government shutdown.

Wednesday October 23, 2013 • A3

Proposal for fuel dock

onal boats; night: The dock will serve commercial boats as well as

STEVE BLOOM/Staff photographer
the colorful fall leaves along Deschutes Parkway 10 for the forecast.

The fuel dock, which is proposed for Swantown Marina

See CHARTER, A5

CLARIFICATION

Ramtha's JZ Knight emailed personal invitations to a fundraiser for Thurston County auditor candidate Mary Hall at the Yelm Triad Theater. The event was organized by Steve Klein and Steve Craig. Klein is employed by Knight but was co-sponsoring it as a private citizen. A story on A3 Tuesday inaccurately described who hosted the event.

Yelm, Sheriff's Sgt. Ray
f gas in ploded.
re why it
h gas was ictims have

OLYMPIA Sheriff's, fire departments team up for gun take-back

A gun turn-in and pharmaceutical drug take-back event will be from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday at the McLane-Black Lake Fire Department, 125

"In 2012, 174 firearms were stolen in 106 burglaries in unincorporated Thurston County. Those guns are now on the street and unaccounted for," Sheriff John Snaza said in a news release.
jredecker@theolympian.com