

Giving Birth to the Divine Child Within

Christmas Workshop & Celebration

Including the Christmas Celebration Teaching

Held December 12-14, 2025

This year's Christmas workshop is dedicated to the child within everyone, young and old, and to the consciousness of joy and the divine child, the Christ within that was there all along waiting to be rediscovered. In these legendary Christmas teachings recovered from the Vault, Ramtha explains how "home" is not a place but a constitution of life, a dimension of mind.

Ramtha teaches us how to transmute suffering into joy this Christmas season and leads us in focus to become as the Christmas tree that does not know how to die, only live. The Christmas tree is a map for the initiate to a state of timelessness, analogical mind, immortal joy, and the Now. This state is nurtured and developed through analogical focus, and Ramtha masterfully leads us into it at this workshop.

Share the joy, the changes, the manifestations, the gifts, your child within, and your future dreams of winter this Christmas. Bring a feast to share, an ornament for your tree to empower and focus on, and the light heart of a child on Christmas morning. We look forward to seeing you there. Merry Christ-in-mass!

"I am Ramtha the Enlightened One and we are at high holidays celebration. I welcome you to join us, and my words and my love will reach you where you are. Do join us in holiday cheer as we progress an evening of high holiday celebration with you right here."

"Blessed be these days I share, blessed be this joy I am,
that I am renewed and fulfilled
with the purpose, indeed,
and gifts of my life."

"From the Lord God of my being,
I say: Hail and good will,
to the high holidays."

"Merry Christmas.
So be it."
